RIPLEY COUNTY COURTS

VS.

DANIEL BREWINGTON
Respondent

ORDER DENYING PETITIONER'S MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

Petitioner, by counsel, having filed a Motion For Temporary Restraining Order and the Court being duly and sufficiently advised in the premises now finds that said Motion should be and hereby is DENIED at this time. The Court may consider issuance of an Order regarding public distribution of matters involving the Dissolution or Custody Evaluation as part of the Court's Decree of Dissolution in considering the best interests of the children. The Court may also consider evidence presented at this hearing regarding the temporary restraining order in regard to the Court's decision as to visitation and custody and how Respondent's actions may affect the best interests of the children now and in the future.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Petitioner's Motion For Temporary Restraining Order is denied at this time.

SO ORDERED THIS 13 DAY OF MAY, 2009.

JAMES D. HUMPHREY, Special Judge
Seventh Judicial Circuit
